

Income Verification Made Easy

Connect Your Bank Account to Speed Up Your Rental Application

Connecting your bank account is the fastest and most secure way to verify your income for your rental application. This eliminates the need to gather pay stubs and gives you the best chance of getting approved quickly.

How It Works in 4 Simple Steps

Easily connect your bank account at the end of your online application. If you don't see the option, check your email for an invitation from Nova Credit.

✓ Faster Approval

✓ Complete Income Picture

✓ Secure Process

Your Privacy and Security Are Protected

RentCafe works with Nova Credit to verify your income. Nova Credit does not access, view, or store your bank login information and your financial institution will only provide your data once to securely verify your income.

What your property manager sees: A report highlighting income deposits

What they don't see: Individual transactions or spending details

Bank-Level Security

Nova Credit maintains rigorous security standards including SOC 2 and ISO 27001 certifications, encryption of data, and regular security testing. We only use your information to verify income and do not share or sell your data for other purposes.
